Denooyer Chevrolet is proud to announce a special partnership with Forest Park Elementary School in the South Colonie School District on a special kindness lesson for all students at the school.

“We are so impressed with all the students and teachers at Forest Park Elementary School for preserving during a difficult school year,” said Denooyer Chevrolet’s owner, Joel Denooyer. “This support will allow those students to keep up their excellent effort with their schoolwork continue to be caring friends to their classmates.”

Forest Park Elementary will be providing the Vermont Family Network’s Puppets in Education program to each of their students. The program will focus on kindness and how students can be kind with their classmates and treat them with respect.

The program included both an in-school virtual presentation and special conversation starters for students and their parents and guardians. The questions focus on improving communication, mental health and celebrating differences.

“We’re proud of the students and staff at Forest Park Elementary,” said Denooyer. “We’re happy to be a part of this wonderful community.”
